Portuguese

14. General Objectives

To contribute to a basic training in the field of Administrative Law, promoting knowledge of the Portuguese administrative system and, in particular, the respective general regime to which administrative activities are subject.

15. Specific Objectives

To favour the learning of the concepts, principles and legal-normative solutions considered most relevant for the understanding of a common background for the regulation of administrative activities in the Portuguese legal system and in the European context.

16. Skills to be acquired

Mastery of the jus-administrative logic that prevails in particular in the Portuguese legal system, enabling students to understand the administrative reality, to legally frame the main manifestations of administrative power, to solve practical issues that are relevant in the scope of General Administrative Law and to develop specialised studies.

17. Teaching Methodology

The teaching will be developed in the theoretical and practical aspects, framing in collective teaching sessions the individual learning efforts to be carried out by the students.
