14. General Objectives

This course aims to develop students' skills in interpreting and improvising over traditional harmonies found in jazz and modern music repertoire, with a diatonic character as well as intra and intertonal, modal, polytonal, and atonal modulations. Resources will be provided to enhance students' understanding of harmony and rhythm, as well as their ability to read chord charts and traditional notation. Additionally, students will learn how to structure melodic and idiomatic discourse within the r

15. Specific Objectives

Interpreting and improvising using various idioms within the realm of jazz and modern music, while developing the necessary mechanisms for ensemble musical practice.

16. Skills to be acquired

Interpretation of elaborate arrangements taking into account the instrumentation of the ensemble. Reading and improvisation. Mastery, in terms of reading, interpretation, and improvisation, of diatonic harmonic progressions with modulations, modal, polytonal, and atonal elements. 17. Teaching Methodology

Group musical practice, arrangement creation, transcription of repertoire, composition of original music, and listening to reference musical examples.

18. Course Unit Program

Ensemble practice of advanced difficulty repertoire, incorporating different rhythmic styles and tempos. The repertoire is divided into mandatory standard material, determined and reviewed annually by the scientific direction of the course, and material chosen by the instructors of the different classes, taking into account the artistic profile of the students and their diverse instrumental formations.

19. Assessment Methods

Performance in two intermediate tests and in attendance, punctuality, and demonstrated interest throughout the course activities.

20. Didactic Resources

Reference recordings and repertoire compilations.

21. Sustainability Objectives

To ensure that all learners acquire the knowledge and skills needed to promote sustainable development, including, among others, through education for sustainable development and sustainable lifestyles, human rights, gender equality, promotion of a culture of peace and non-violence, global citizenship and appreciation of cultural diversity and of culture?s contribution to sustainable development.
