14. General Objectives

Basic training in the field of European Union Law, promoting essential knowledge of the legal and constitutional regime of the current European Union and the history of its founding treaties from the Treaty of Rome to the Treaty of Lisbon, as well as its extensions. It is also intended to convey a dynamic and not merely static perspective of this organization.

15. Specific Objectives

Learning the concepts, principles, sources and essential legal norms related to the institutional structure, functioning and activity of the European Union.

16. Skills to be acquired

General understanding of European Union law, in its complexity, and in its evolution. Ability to understand and interpret the main treaties. Ability to analyze derived European Union law in order to understand the legal and practical issues in particular raised within the scope of the Portuguese legal system, mainly considering the decentralized application of this law.

17. Teaching Methodology

Teaching is developed in a theoretical-practical aspect, focusing on the subjects included in the program and in a tutorial aspect, implying the systematic analysis of the Treaty on the European Union and the Treaty on the Functioning of the European Union, the study of the most relevant jurisprudence of the Court of Justice and the resolution of practical cases. Navigation on the European Union website to access the Community acquis.
