14. General Objectives

The subjects taught aim to enable us to understand the issues facing economies in transition from a development perspective.

15. Specific Objectives

It is intended that students understand the problems of unequal growth, alternative development models in economies in transition, the specificities of these development models in several continents, as well as their integrationist experiences.
It is also intended to take into account the particular case of the PALOP and the Portuguese cooperation policy, as well as business strategies in transition economies.

16. Skills to be acquired

Be equipped with the analytical tools to understand the issues that arise in terms of bilateral and multilateral cooperation, as well as in terms of business management in economies in transition.

17. Teaching Methodology

In the theoretical-practical classes will be exposed by the teacher the themes contained in the Program, with space for the discussion of texts and for the placement of questions in the classes of tutoring orientation.
