14. General Objectives

The Competition Law course aims to provide master's students with a solid understanding of the principles, rules, and mechanisms governing competition in markets, both at the national level and within the European Union. The course seeks to develop the ability to analyze and apply legal norms designed to prevent and suppress anticompetitive practices while ensuring efficient and fair markets.

15. Specific Objectives

Understand the regulatory framework of Competition Law, including the most relevant legislative sources and case law;
Identify and analyze anticompetitive practices, namely cartels, abuse of dominant position, and mergers;
Examine the role of regulatory authorities, particularly the Competition Authority and the European Commission;
Assess the economic impact of competition rules on market participants;
Develop legal reasoning skills and critical thinking abilities in resolving concrete case

16. Skills to be acquired
